Business management and marketing
Environmental and governmental pressure on agriculture	Bowman J C	1986	41	3	77-83
Purchase prices of farm machines	Elbanna B, Witney B D	1986	41	4	106-112
A cost model of straw conservation systems	Clegg J M, Noble D H	1987	42	1	15-20
The combine business	Williamson J A	1987	42	1	21-22
The Laverda transverse rotary combine concept	Bosworth P	1987	42	1	23
What is Quality Assurance and what do we need to do about it?	Duncan I J	1987	42	1	30-32
Marketing research: has it a role in applied research and development?	Knox S D	1987	42	4	107-112
UK technology in Middle East markets	Boardman J M	1987	42	4	113-116
Choosing the right form of finance	Arnold R E	1988	43	2	46-47
Meeting the farmers' future needs	Redman P L	1988	43	2	49-51
Changes in commercial and technological practices by large multinational companies	Walker D M	1988	43	3	74-77
Engineers and engineering - 1992 - What does it mean to you?	Levy J C	1989	44	2	38-39
'Focus on quality' - 1992 - What does it hold for us?	Walker D M	1989	44	3	77-78
Qualified engineers in Britain - the Engineering Council 1989 survey	Finney J B	1990	45	1	9
The importance of a healthy manufacturing industry	Weaver L J	1990	45	3	68-69
The economics of farm machinery manufacture	Walker D M	1990	45	3	69-71
New products/new markets	Bradley J, Webster R	1990	45	3	73-75
Crop drying and storage
Firing of boilers and furnaces with non-fossil fuels	Metcalfe J P	1986	41	1	17-27
Grain cleaning and grading: commercial needs and practices - present and future	Marshall J L	1986	41	1	34-35
Heat pumps for near ambient grain drying: a performance and economics feasibility study	Brook R C	1986	41	2	52-57
Putting theory into practice	Galloway A W	1986	41	2	62-67
Soft start for the reduction of starting currents for grain drying fans	Kneeshaw A R	1986	41	3	103-105
Developments in solar grain drying in Scotland	Spencer H B, Graham R	1987	42	1	24-29
Penetrative forces on grain sampling lances	Bishop C F H, Hardwick D N	1987	42	4	128-131
Grain drier fires - their cause and prevention	Lasseran J C	1987	42	4	132-135
The effect of lighting quality and intensity on the efficiency of seed potato inspection	Zegers D H A, Berg V van den	1988	43	1	5-11
Near-ambient grain drying	Nellist M E	1988	43	3	93-101
Moisture sensing and control in a recirculating batch grain dryer	Bruce D M	1988	43	4	140-143

Title of paper	Author	Yr	Vol	Pt	Page
The 'silent' revolution in materials processing	Philpott W L	1989	44	2	44-47
Programmable logic controls	Cox S W R	1989	44	2	48-52
Predicting croploads on walls of on-floor grain stores (refereed paper)	Moran P	1990	45	2	36-39
On-farm grading and cleaning of potatoes and onions	Bishop C F G	1990	45	2	40-42
A tea drier house with integrated exhaust	Norman J G S	1990	45	3	86

Cultivations and ploughing

Tillage effects on growth, yield of maize and some soil properties – an experience at Dschang, Cameroon (refereed paper)	Baryeh E A	1986	41	2	38-42
Development of a rotary soil shaper for raised beds	MacIntyre D	1986	41	4	139-140
Re-examining the role of the plough	Brassington T J M	1987	42	2	53-57
Developments in machinery and techniques for improved soil and water management	Spoor G	1987	42	3	67-72
Rotary implement (the 'Sturplow')	MacIntyre D, Sharp M J, Gray A G	1987	42	4	120-123
The development of the Wye double digger	Warboys I B	1988	43	1	22-24
Centre pivot cultivation: power supply and control of a mains electric tractor	Wilton B, Strange P, Ghasemzadeh H R	1989	44	1	12-15
Reduced tillage for energy and cost savings with cereals	Ball B C	1990	45	1	2-6
The mechanics of animal draught cultivation implements – Part I	Inns F M	1990	45	1	13-17
Earthworms – their influence on the soil – Influence of cultivation systems on earthworm populations	Allen H P	1990	45	1	26
Cultivation methods in Australia	Yule I J	1990	45	2	57-58

Dairy engineering

Developments in milking machinery	Goldsmith F E	1987	42	3	92-95
Matcon cones	Cooper P	1988	43	2	63
Economic realities of energy conservation in UK farm dairies	Carpenter J L	1989	44	1	19-23
A facility for research into milking systems for small ruminants	Mottram T T, Smith D L O	1990	45	2	43-44

Design, development and manufacturing

A system to monitor tractor drive tyre radial deflection on-the-move (refereed paper)	Hemingway P F, Grigor M	1986	41	1	11-16
Scottish Branch Inventions, Competition sponsored by the Bank of Scotland	Pascal J A	1986	41	1	32-33
The development and field trials of the A blade coulter for introducing seed into the soil	MacIntyre D, Gray A G, Sharp M J	1986	41	2	43-51
Electronics on farm machinery: more productivity or more problems?	Potter M R	1986	41	2	58-61

Title of paper	Author	Yr	Vol	Pt	Page
The introduction of new technologies	Matthews J	1986	41	3	70-76
Developments in combine harvester design	Garbers H	1986	41	4	113-119
Development of a rotary soil shaper for raised beds	MacIntyre D	1986	41	4	139-140
A new stripping header for combine harvesters	Klinner W E, Neale M A, Arnold R E	1987	42	1	9-14
The combine business	Williamson J A	1987	42	1	21-22
The Laverda transverse rotary combine concept	Bosworth P	1987	42	1	23
What is Quality Assurance and what do we need to do about it?	Duncan I J	1987	42	1	30-32
A new facility for agricultural engineering education and machine test and development work	Hemingway P F	1987	42	1	32
Valediction to the Scottish Institute of Agricultural Engineering	Blight D P	1987	42	2	34-35
Transmission assembly using automatic guided vehicles	Boad A	1987	42	2	58-60
Advances in machine technology	Godwin R J	1987	42	3	66
Developments in machinery and techniques for improved soil and water management	Spoor G	1987	42	3	67-72
Spray application technology	Miller P C H	1987	42	3	77-84
Rotary implement (the 'Sturplow')	MacIntyre D, Sharp M J, Gray A G	1987	42	4	120-123
Research and development facilities in Europe	Duncan I J	1987	42	4	117-119
Marketing research: has it a role in applied research and development?	Knox S D	1987	42	4	107-112
The development of the Wye double digger	Warboys I B	1988	43	1	22-24
Disappointed innovators	Coleman J E	1988	43	1	30
FAMOS – for agricultural engineering	Clark C	1988	43	2	57-61
Everyone needs a standard	Duncan I J	1988	43	2	61-63
The MacRobert Award 1987	Moulton A	1988	43	2	64
Challenge and change in agricultural engineering	Witney B D	1988	43	3	66-69
Technology and agricultural engineering – a personal view	O'Callaghan J R	1988	43	3	70-73
Changes in commercial and technological practices by large multi-national companies	Walker D M	1988	43	3	74-77
Current developments on tyres for agricultural use	Pocket G M	1989	44	3	100
Rural industries in Scotland – the Young Engineers Section 1989 tour	Hodges T P, Scarlett A J, Davies S S M, Whalley W R, Nguyen N V, Livingstone I	1990	45	1	10-12
The mechanics of animal draught cultivation implements – Part 1	Inns F M	1990	45	1	13-17
The importance of a healthy manufacturing industry	Weaver L J	1990	45	3	68-69
The economics of farm machinery manufacture	Walker D M	1990	45	3	69-71
The skills shortage	Pamment B A	1990	45	3	76-78
Manufacturing in the Third World	Sutton D H	1990	45	3	79-93
Installation of computer aided engineering	Read C	1990	45	4	113-114

Drills, seeding and planting

The development and field trials of the A blade coulter for introducing seed into the soil	MacIntyre D, Gray A G, Sharp M J	1986	41	2	43-51
